Since 2000, Fox Valley Technical College has had a connection with Zoomvliet College in Roosendaal, The Netherlands and now we have the opportunity to offer an exchange to bring students from The Netherlands to FVTC for two-weeks during Fall 2012 and show them the academic, professional and cultural components of FVTC, Appleton, the Fox Valley and Wisconsin. We will be searching for several students and/or families to welcome our visitors into their homes for two-weeks. If interested please talk to the Faculty Leader or Study Abroad Coordinator.

After the visit from the Dutch students, FVTC students will have the opportunity to reciprocate the exchange by visiting The Netherlands for two-weeks during Spring Semester 2013 (tentative dates of travel are May 17 - June 2nd). FVTC students will be able to live and learn the Dutch language and culture during the visit. The two weeks visit to The Netherlands will be filled with fun and exciting activities, as well as some business in between. Students will learn about the offshore wind farms and other ways the Dutch sustainable energy. FVTCs 3-credit International Professional Field Study Courses encompass three main components: Academic, Professional and Cultural. This is a great opportunity to get build your global resume, and meet people from around the world.
